The furor created by the recent rescript of the Pope has by no means subsided. Meetings are still being held in almost every parish throughout England. A great meeting is to be held in Liverpool on the 20th, on the same subject. In the London circles it is confidently asserted that the letter of Lord John Russell was but a mere party At Bedford, where a meeting was held, Lord Chas. Russell, brother to the Premier, was most extravagant in his denunciations of Papal aggression. The Catholics bore all this tirade with extreme meekness and moderation.

In Ireland there have been some ebullitions of feeling, but nothing of much consequence. A new Convent is to be established near Liverpool, and three new Catholic Churches are to be built during the ensuing summer. The very temperate speech of the American Minister at the recent Guilder Hall banquet, where the Lord Chancellor heaped coals upon the fire, has been the theme of general commendation. In matters of general news there is not much of
